[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Baltimore, Md., May 2.—Edwin L. Quarles, of Petersburg, has resigned his position as secretary to the Southern Commercial Congress and has accepted a similar position as director of the Baltimore Publicity Bureau at a salary of $12,000 per year. Chairman C. H. The position was offered Mr. Quarles by a committee of Baltimore merchants appointed to secure an efficient director of the publicity bureau here.

Mr. Quarles is thirty years of age, married and has one son. He has been engaged for some time as the secretary of the Southern Commercial Congress, with headquarters at Washington. # GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Verdict in Case of F. C. Watkins, Charged With Killing John H. Bunting. Asheville, N. C., May 2.—The jury in the case of F. C. Watkins, charged with the killing of John H. Bunting, of Wilmington, at Black Mountain, in August, 1909, to-day returned a verdict of manslaughter. Counsel for the defendant immediately made a motion that the verdict be set aside and a new trial ordered on the ground that one of the jurors, J. W. Arthur, had expressed an opinion after the tragedy in the effect that Watkins was guilty and should be punished. The court will announce his decision to-morrow.

This was the second trial of Watkins, the former one having resulted in a jury disagreement. The accused entered a plea of self-defense, claiming that he shot Bunting in the discharge of his duties as an officer, when he was called to quell a disturbance at a hotel where Bunting and a friend, Paul Collins, were guests. The last named was seriously wounded by Watkins when Bunting was killed.

Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Alexandria, Va., May 2.—City Council last night passed the new tax ordinance by a vote of 9 to 5, fixing the rate of $180 on the $100, with discounts of 4 and 2 per cent, respectively, if paid by July and September 1 next.

The Board of Aldermen will take up the matter Tuesday. It is said, however, that the highest board will not approve the discounts and a conference committee will be asked for.

FIRST TESTIMONY IN BISHOP TRIAL

Evidence of Preliminary Nature Heard in Petersburg Bank Cases.

NOT TO KEEP JURY TOGETHER

All Witnesses, Including Charles H. Davis, Excluded Until Called.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., May 3.—At 10 o'clock this morning, the case of the Commonwealth vs. Carter R. Bishop, former cashier of the Appomattox Trust Company, against whom are pending four indictments, charging the making of a false entry on the books of the bank, by means of which money was unlawfully obtained, was called to trial in the Hustings Court. Wilcox & Wilcox appeared as counsel for the defendant.

The special indictment on which Mr. Bishop is being tried is that known as No. 2, in which it is alleged that a false entry of $20,655 was made on October 5, 1908. To this indictment, on arraignment yesterday afternoon, the defendant pleaded not guilty.

First Jurors Chosen. It had been expected that much difficulty would be encountered in securing a jury, on account of the wide publicity and discussion of the case, for many months, but out of the venire of twenty men summoned to court, ten were accepted by the court as satisfactory jurors before 12 o'clock.

To several of these, however, the defense objected, on the ground that they were excused for various reasons. At 12 o'clock the court ordered another venire of twenty men to be summoned and took a recess until 1 o'clock. The questioning of veniremen was very rigid. Not only were they asked the usual questions by the court, but they were also asked to express an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, whether they were prejudiced for or against him, whether they could give him a fair and impartial trial, but they were questioned closely by counsel for the defense as to any relation of association with the bank and its officers and directors; whether they or their relatives owned any stock in the bank, or had lost any money by it; whether they had discussed the affairs of the bank, and formed any impression one way or the other about it, or had formed impressions that it would require evidence to remove. The case with which the first ten jurors were secured was a surprise to both sides.

Jury Empaneled. The court met at 1 o'clock, and out of the second venire a jury of twelve was empaneled and sworn, as follows: Frank T. Plummer, Charles H. Godsey, James D. Ledbetter, Joseph D. Mann, John B. Hubbard, John E. Brunet, James E. Goodrich, E. A. Bain. The jury is considered a first-class one in intelligence. All of the jurors are men of high standing, and many of them are merchants.

The defendant stood while the long indictment, to which he had pleaded not guilty yesterday afternoon, was read to the jury. The court stated to the jury on both sides that they had the right to open a statement of the case on the jury, but each side waived the right.

Counsel for the defendant asked that the jury be kept together, under consideration, indicating, however, that it was not disposed to do so. The court adjourned to 4 o'clock, when the prosecution began its evidence.

The court reconvened at 4 o'clock and proceeded at once to the hearing of the case. Counsel for the defendant withdrew their request to have the jury kept together during the trial, as it was learned that the trial would last longer than had been anticipated. Witnesses for the prosecution were called and sworn, and at the request of the defense were excluded from the room until they should be called to testify.

This was made a public affair, and witnesses for the defense, including Charles H. Davis, jointly indicted with Bishop for false entry.

John H. Lee, counsel for Mr. Davis, protested against his exclusion, contending that, though not a defendant in this particular proceeding, he was deeply interested in it as a joint defendant, and as such should be allowed to remain. The court, however, held that Mann held that Davis was not a party to this proceeding, and the rule of exclusion should apply to him as to other witnesses.

Commonwealth's Attorney Mann introduced in evidence his copy of the charter of the Petersburg Development and Loan Company, the predecessor of the Appomattox Trust Company, and the affidavit of the change of name of the Development and Loan Company to that of the Appomattox Trust Company, filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth in January, 1908. It was established and corroborated by the witness, William A. Worth, the secretary of the Appomattox Trust Company, that on the morning of that day Mr. Davis was overheard to say to the directors of the bank, including Charles H. Davis and Carter R. Bishop, the president and cashier of the bank in 1908, was put on the stand, but he knew nothing of any overdrafts or alleged wrongful acts, and was excused.

To-day's proceedings were comparatively unimportant as compared with what the proceedings will be to-morrow, when many witnesses of prominence, including directors of the bank, will be put on the stand and matters of interest developed.

of the bank, alleging various wrongful acts. Subsequently, in March the case was given to another grand jury, resulting in the finding of twenty-three indictments against Bishop and Davis, whereupon all of the former indictments were not prosecuted in the new series, twelve were against Bishop individually for making as cashier false reports to the Corporation Commission of the financial condition of the bank, and eleven were against Bishop and Davis jointly for the same offenses. The indictments were all continued to await the decision of the Supreme Court in the Thorne case, involving the same principles. The indictment against Davis have been continued to the May term, as Bishop had elected to be tried separately on the joint indictment.

COMMITTEE FINDS CHARGES FALSE

Mrs. Wiley, Head of Holston Orphanage Officially Exonerated.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., May 3.—The executive committee of the board of trustees of the Greenville (Tenn.) Orphanage of the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has officially exonerated Mrs. E. E. Wiley, the venerable head of the institution, against whom a warrant was issued some weeks ago, charging the cruel whipping of a boy inmate. The report of misappropriation of funds is shown to be absurd. Sentiment is very largely in favor of Mrs. Wiley, and the report of gratification to her friends.

The executive committee of the board of directors of the orphanage met a special session at Knoxville, April 12, 1911, to consider widespread rumors concerning matters at the orphanage. While the committee did not employ an expert accountant to go into a detailed examination of accounts, books, vouchers, etc., they found nothing in the case to justify even a suspicion that there had been any misappropriation of funds. Such talk was declared to be libelous and outrageous.

During seventeen years of service, without a dollar of salary, Mrs. Wiley met urgent accounts out of her own private funds to the amount of $400.

"Concerning alleged cruel treatment of children it is only right," the committee declared, "that the public should know that Mrs. Wiley's protection was very great, and that the whipping administered to a boy two years old did not break his skin. Putting two boys in jail over a matter of heroic treatment, and may possibly have been extreme, but the case was desperate, and ordinary corrective measures had been exhausted."

In conclusion the committee said: "The Holston Orphanage was born in Mrs. Wiley's brain and heart. Through seventeen years she has taught and traveled and planned and worked and sacrificed in its behalf. She has put her very life into the work of faith and labor of love. She merits the gratitude and love of our people—not this cruel slander. The executive committee wishes publicly to express its confidence in her as a noble Christian woman."

LABOR RALLY IN ALEXANDRIA.

Martin Lollo, chairman of the committee of arrangements, presided and introduced the speakers. Sixty honorary chairmen occupied seats on the stage, among them being officers of the various labor organizations here, officers of the Chamber of Commerce, several ministers and others.

Interesting talks on the labor question were made by the following in their respective order: Representative C. C. Carlin, of this city; Representative William H. Wilson, chairman of the House Committee on Labor, of Pennsylvania; Representative Henry George, Jr., of New York, and Senator John Worth Kern, former candidate for Vice-President, of Indiana.

ASK FOR REDUCTION OF TAX ON MANUFACTURED TOBACCO

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Martinsville, Va., May 3.—At a meeting of the Board of Trade of Martinsville, held here a few days ago, a committee composed of J. T. Penn, J. D. Sparrow, G. B. Dudley and R. B. Semple was appointed to take up with Virginia Senators and Representatives in Congress the matter of a reduction of the tax on manufactured tobacco.

Resolutions were adopted setting forth the fact that the tax of 8 cents per pound was equal to the average price received by the farmers for their raw material, and that, though paid by the consumer, it was a burden some tax upon the business, and that as it was borne only by citizens of the United States, it was unjust. The representatives were asked to enlist their most earnest efforts in securing a reduction of the tax.

The committee will also take the matter up with the Board of Trade of other cities in Virginia and North Carolina, which are interested in the tobacco business, and endeavor to secure their co-operation in getting a reduction of the tax.
